² Section 002 of this course is graded on an S/U basis (Satisfactory / Unsatisfactory). See the School of Law Rules for further explanation and qualifications.

³ This course restricted to those students enrolled in Law 692.

⁴ Introduction to Commercial Law (Spring 2010): Please note, due to the University's placement of Spring Break 2010, the course structure will be different than presented on the schedule for the first six weeks. Students will need to have Friday's free at 1:00PM for the first six weeks of class (or watch the videos of those classes). There will be two mid-term exams on the following Fridays: Feb 5th and March 5th. In addition, please note that the mid-term on March 5th will not be rescheduled due to pre-existing Spring Break plans.

Instructor permission required for enrollment in Law 692, Semester Away Program in State & Local Government. Pre-requisite of Law 580, Legal Profession, waived for the Spring 2010 term.

The last day of regular classes is Friday, April 30. Monday, May 3, is reserved for a reading period. Final exams will be Tuesday, May 4, through Friday, May 14. Commencement date TBA.
