CENTER FOR HEALTH LAW AND POLICY

2014-2015 EVENTS
Dr. Arthur Grayson Distinguished Lecture
National Health Law Moot Court Competition
John and Marsha Ryan Bioethicist-in-Residence
SIH/SIU Health Policy Institute
Dr. Arthur Grayson Distinguished Lecture (video recording will be available online)

Brain dead and pregnant: the legal and ethical considerations and impact of the Marlise Munoz case.
Jessica Hall Janicek, J.D.
5 p.m. Sept. 10

National Health Law Moot Court Competition

The competition problem examines an employer’s obligation under the Americans with Disabilities Act to reassign employees with disabilities to vacant positions and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission’s duty to conciliate claims before initiating litigation.
Nov. 7 and 8

John and Marsha Ryan Bioethicist-in-Residence

Thaddeus Mason Pope, J.D., Ph.D., director, Health Law Institute, Hamline University School of Law
March 4-6
5 p.m. March 4, public lecture in Carbondale

SIH/SIU Health Policy Institute

Alternative Delivery Methods in Health Care: The Search for Quality and Efficiency
May 22

All events will be held at the SIU School of Law

www.law.siu.edu/academics/center-programs/health-law-policy or 618/453-8636