Margot Schlesinger, a member of Schindler's List, will join us via Skype to discuss her experience in the Nazi concentration camps of World War II.

Saved from death by Oskar Schindler, Mrs. Schlesinger, now 95 years old, has lived in the Chicago area since 1953.

Margot and her husband, Charles Schlesinger, were among those protected from death by Schindler. After their liberation in May 1945, the Schlesingers emigrated to Lyon, France, and opened a shirt manufacturing company before moving in 1953 to Chicago to be with Margot Schlesinger's relatives.
