About the Course

Tentative Schedule.

Classes will meet Spring Semester 2016 on Tuesdays from 4:30 to 5:45 p.m. Ten days of travel begins May 16 after graduation. Those returning with the group will return May 25 (typically before the formal start of the bar preparation courses).

May 16. Depart on your own.

May 17. Arrive Tokyo

May 17-19. After arrival, we will spend 3 nights and 2 days in Tokyo.

May 20-22. We then spend 3 nights and 2 plus days in Kyoto.

May 23-24. We travel to Hiroshima, where we spend two days and nights before returning to Tokyo.

May 25. Depart Narita return to U.S.

Tentative Cost. $2500 not including airfare.

About Japan

Japan is a different world; yet a close ally. Its cities are a mass of concrete, steel, and humanity, yet hold immeasurable beauty. It has embraced all that is modern, yet it remains rooted in the past. Japan’s legal system is based on Western models, yet it foreign to the West.

Come explore an enigma.

For additional information see course description or contact
Professor Andrew Pardieck
Email: apardieck@law.siu.edu

LOOKING TO THE EAST

Legal Globalization & Comparative Law – Japan Trip 2016